Dear Valued Customers and Partners

RE: The launch of new Logo (Integration of Logo on global basis)

We appreciate your continuous support and kind attention to Summit Agro International Ltd.

Summit Agro International, in conjunction with Sumitomo Corporation, operates Crop Protection Products (CPP) wholesaling/retail business in 37 countries, and has a global trade network covering the globe, under the name of “Summit Agro/Sumi Agro/Sumisho Agro” (SA group), is eager to fulfill its functions in a more multifaceted, sophisticated and rapid fashion in three businesses: the CPP business, the life environment business, and the animal science business.

Today, SA group is proud to announce the launch of group-wide integrated new Logo, in which the group seeks to provide innovative solutions for sustainable agriculture aligned with the civil society expectations by further strengthening the collaboration and co-work among the global group companies.

<New Logo>

The new logo designs a circular image representing our global presence to work in harmony with our Valued Customers and Partners. The different tones of orange evoking our works for the bright future like shining Sun, and the green leaf, which reflects our daily commitment to the environment and sustainable products for the society benefits. This circle has open spaces, showing our openness and willingness to develop and welcome new types of alliances and technologies solutions for the always diverse and new needs of the Valued Customers and Partners.

The environment surrounding us is increasingly becoming volatile and complex in recent years. Accordingly, the expectations on the trading company functions from the business partners are becoming more diverse than ever. We take this circumstance very seriously, and are to accelerate our functions with the aim of maximizing our multi-faceted, sophisticated, and speedy functionality in order to expand our contribution to our business partners aligning with our global group companies under the new Logo.

We look forward to your continued support and encouragement.

Yours sincerely,
